TL2198

RALLY FOR A FREE EAST TIMOR

They'll never forget November 12.

Will you?

On November 12, 1991, a peaceful demonstration at the Santa Cruz cemetary in East Timor was attacked by Indonesian soldiers in what became known as the Dili massacre. On November 12 this year, join survivors of the massacre and others who want the massacres to stop at a rally and march starting from Princes Gate Plaza (opposite Flinders Street Station) at 12 on the 12th.

EAST TIMOR

Princes Gate Plaza (opposite Flinders St. Station), November 12, at 12.
Organised by AKSI, CNRM, FRETILIN, UDT & AETA. Ph. (03) 9416 2960.

Sponsored by: Australia Asia Worker Links; Australian Democrats; Australian Education Union (Vic Branch); Australian Humanitarian Aid for Bougainville; CAA East Timor Solidarity Group; Christians in Solidarity with East Timor; Community Development Collective; Democratic Socialist Party; Freedom Socialist Party; Friends of the Earth; Greens Party; Health Services Union of Australia (Vic No. 1 Branch); International Socialist Organisation; 9 Days; Pax Christi; Rainbow Alliance; Resistance; Seven Sisters Cafe, Westgarth; Unitarian Church.